INTRODUCTION

Reference is made to the section headed "Connected Transaction" of the prospectus of the Company dated June 13, 2025, in relation to, among others, Provision of Products Framework Agreement and Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement entered into between the Company (on behalf of the Group) and Sanhua Holding (on behalf of Sanhua Holding Group).

As the Provision of Products Framework Agreement and Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement will expire on December 31, 2025, and the Company expects such transactions to continue thereafter, on December 17, 2025, the Company (on behalf of the Group) and Sanhua Holding (on behalf of Sanhua Holding Group) agreed to enter into: (i) the 2026 Provision of Products Framework Agreement, in relation to the supply of manufactured products by the Group to Sanhua Holding Group; and (ii) the 2026 Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement, in relation to procurement of various materials, power and supplies from Sanhua Holding Group by the Group.

1. 2026 Provision of Products Framework Agreement

Principal terms of the 2026 Provision of Products Framework Agreement are set out as follows:

Date: December 17, 2025

Parties: (1) the Company (on behalf of the Group); and
(2) Sanhua Holding (on behalf of Sanhua Holding Group)

Term: From January 1, 2026 to December 31, 2026

Subject matter: The Group agreed to supply Sanhua Holding Group with manufactured products, including but not limited to power, filters, molds, valve products, heat exchangers and home appliances (the "Component Products"). The filters, molds, valve products, and heat exchangers are procured by Sanhua Holding Group to manufacture products including pneumatic solenoid valves and textile machine solenoid valves, as well as their assemblies.

Payment and settlement terms:

Payment and settlement terms under the 2026 Provision of Products Framework Agreement shall be specified in each of the implementation agreements to be entered into under the 2026 Provision of Products Framework Agreement in due course.

Pricing Policy

The amount to be paid by Sanhua Holding Group to the Group under the 2026 Provision of Products Framework Agreement generally adopt a cost-plus method. The costs are mainly determined, after arm's length negotiation between the parties, on the basis of the raw material costs and additional costs, including fees in relation to depreciation, auxiliary materials, and labour costs. Profits are mainly determined based on reasonable profit margins and are ultimately determined based on the arm's length negotiations between the parties in accordance with normal commercial terms. Based on historical transactions, the profit margin for such products generally ranges from 10% to 35%, depending on factors such as product type and procurement scale. The Company will also take into account the prices offered by the Group to at least two other comparable customers for the purchase of similar products to the extent practicable. In addition, the Group will implement internal control measures to ensure that the pricing of

Reasons for and Benefits of Entering into the 2026 Provision of Products Framework Agreement

The Group maintains a long-term and stable business relationship with Sanhua Holding Group. Sanhua Holding Group is familiar with the products the Group manufactured and procures these products for its research and development, testing and employee benefits purposes. The Group is not and will not be bound to collaborate with Sanhua Holding Group, and the Group will only manufacture and provide the required products to Sanhua Holding Group if the Company considers such cooperation to be in the interests of the Company and its Shareholders as a whole. Such cooperation with Sanhua Holding Group not only brings the Group additional sales but also the opportunities to expand the Group's reach and further promote offerings of the Group. Sanhua Holding Group possesses a thorough understanding of the Group's product type, product quality, and cooperation model. Continuing this partnership is cost-effective and mutually beneficial for both parties.

2. 2026 Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement

Principal terms of the 2026 Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement are set out as follows:

Date:	December 17, 2025
Parties:	(1) the Company (on behalf of the Group); and (2) Sanhua Holding (on behalf of Sanhua Holding Group)
Term:	From January 1, 2026 to December 31, 2026
Subject matter:	The Group agreed to procure various materials, power and supplies from Sanhua Holding Group.
Payment and settlement terms:	Payment and settlement terms under the 2026 Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement shall be specified in each of the implementation agreements to be entered into under the 2026 Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement in due course.

Pricing Policy

The amount to be paid by the Group to Sanhua Holding Group under the 2026 Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement shall be determined by commercial negotiation between the parties according to the principles of fairness and reasonableness, taking into account the factors including but not limited to the type of materials, transaction volume and the prices for the procurement of similar materials of the same nature, type and quantity by the Group from other Independent Third Parties. To ensure that the prices are fair, reasonable, and consistent with the prevailing market, the Group will obtain quotations from independent third-party sellers (at least two in principle) who provide the same or similar products. These quotations will be compared with those of Sanhua Holding Group, and the Group will only accept Sanhua Holding Group's quotations if they are no less favorable than those of independent third-party sellers. In addition, the Group will implement internal control measures to ensure that the pricing of the continuing connected transactions is fair and reasonable. Details of the internal control measures are set out in the section headed "Internal Control Measures" in this announcement.

Historical Amounts

The amounts of fees paid by the Group to Sanhua Holding Group under the Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement for the eleven months ended November 30, 2025 was approximately RMB53.03 million.

Annual Caps and Basis of Determination

It is estimated that the maximum aggregate amount of fees to be paid by the Group to Sanhua Holding Group under the 2026 Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement will not exceed RMB108.00 million for the year ending December 31, 2026.

The aforementioned annual cap was determined by the Directors after considering the following factors: (i) historical transaction amounts for the eleven months ended November 30, 2025; (ii) the volume and value of existing orders the Group has from certain of its customers; (iii) the Company's expected growth in business scale in 2026, attributable to the Group's business expansion plans; (iv) the estimated transaction volumes for materials, power and supplies procurement following the implementation of the Group's 2026 sales plan, which is prepared according to annual production forecasts and production plans for each business unit; (v) the close cooperation between both parties since Sanhua Holding Group began supplying materials, power and supplies to the Group, with the expectation that the Group's demand for materials, power and supplies from Sanhua Holding Group will further increase in the future; and (vi) an approximate 5% buffer set for price changes of related materials and potential market fluctuations.

Reasons for and Benefits of Entering into the 2026 Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement

The Group has been purchasing materials, power and supplies from Sanhua Holding Group over the years in the ordinary and usual course of business. The Group and Sanhua Holding Group has established a long-term and stable business relationship, and Sanhua Holding Group has acquired a comprehensive understanding of the Group's business and operational requirements of the materials, power and supplies. Therefore, the Company believes it is in the best interest of the Company and its Shareholders as a whole to continue to procure such materials, power and supplies from Sanhua Holding Group who is capable of fulfilling the Group's demands with a stable and high-quality supply of materials, power and supplies on terms which are similar to or better than those offered by Independent Third Parties.

OPINION FROM THE BOARD

The Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) are of the view that the terms of each of the 2026 Provision of Products Framework Agreement and the 2026 Procurement of Materials Framework Agreement were determined after arm's length negotiation, and the transactions thereunder (including the annual cap for the year ending December 31, 2026) are conducted in the ordinary and usual business of the Company and are on normal commercial terms, fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.
