II. COMMUNICATION WITH THE ACCOUNTING FIRM

The information contained in this announcement is an estimate solely based on the preliminary assessment made by the finance department of the Company and has not been audited by the accounting firm. The financial data contained in this announcement has been prepared in accordance with the China Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises. The Company has conducted preliminary discussions with the accounting firm regarding matters related to the estimated results, and there are no disagreements between the parties.

III. REASONS FOR THE CHANGE IN THE ESTIMATED RESULTS

The improvement in the Company's estimated results during the Reporting Period is primarily attributable to: the Company continued to consolidate its leading position in the refrigeration and air-conditioning components sector by fully capitalizing on growing market demand and leveraging its deep technological expertise and economies of scale in core products, driving sustained business growth. Meanwhile, with its established global market presence in the thermal management systems for new energy vehicles, the Company secured additional high-quality orders through the demonstration effect of benchmark customers, further solidifying the growth momentum of its automotive components business. The synergy between its two major business segments provided solid support for the annual performance growth of the Company.

IV. RISK WARNING
